Diamond "Miners" Having Family Feud

Monday February 28, 2005 2:41pm

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)

The owner of the Pennsylvania business known as Van Scoy Diamond Mine is suing relatives who own a Stanton, Delaware, business with the same name.

They're alleging trademark infringement.

Wayne Van Scoy is suing Kurt and Donna Van Scoy in US District Court in Wilmington, claiming that he owns the trademarked name

"Van Scoy Diamond Mine." He says his father,

Tommy Van Scoy, gave him the name and he wants the court to stop the Delaware business from using it.

The suit claims that Van Scoy Diamond Mine is associated with the Indianapolis 500 races and stock car races and advertises "on radio commercials in numerous states."

The lawsuit acknowledges the Delaware store registered an Internet domain name in 2002, but says the name was "usurped and converted" by the Delaware Van Scoys.

The lawsuit claims the Delaware business has used the name even though it was warned not to.
